

Australian Christmas Carol

From Bethlehem to Uluru
An awesome song is heard!
The land of surf and kangaroos
Hears angels sing these words:
"We have good news to tell to everyone!
For you a Saviour now has come,
Christ the Lord was born today!
All praise and glory," hear them sing!
"To God in highest heaven,
And to the people on the earth
His love and peace are given!"

The Aussie land of barbecues,
Of mateship, sport and pies,
Joins with the angels in their song
Beneath the southern skies:
"We have good news to tell to everyone!
For us a Saviour now has come,
Christ the Lord was born today!
All praise and glory let us sing
To God in highest heaven,
For to the people on the earth
His love and peace are given!"

Based on Luke 2:8-20.
