

Christmas Carol

There were some shepherds minding sheep
One night near Bethlehem,
When suddenly the sky lit up
And angels sang from heaven:
"We have good news to tell to everyone!
For you a Saviour now has come,
Christ the Lord was born today.
All praise and glory," thus they sang,
"To God in highest heaven,
And to the people on the earth
His love and peace are given!"

The shepherds got up straight away
And went to Bethlehem
To see the baby sent by God,
Just as the angels said.
They had good news to tell to everyone:
For us a Saviour now had come,
Christ our Lord was born that day.
All praise and glory let us sing
To God in highest heaven,
For to the people on the earth
His love and peace are given!

* * *

Based on Luke 2:8-20

Written by Andrew Price. Website: www.andrewpricesongs.com