

PSALM 103

Praise the Lord, O my soul; praise his name!
Forget not the things he has done;
Who forgives, and redeems, and restores,
And who crowns you with mercy and love!

Like a father towards his children
He shows compassion, kindness and care;
Through all ages his love is constant,
His love and goodness are ever sure!

Praise the Lord who is King over all;
Majestic and mighty is he.
Praise the Lord, all his angels above;
All things praise him for eternity!
