

John's Vision from the Book of Revelation

I saw a vision, a scene of glory;
God's throne in heaven was there before me,
And all around him I heard loud voices
Of angels singing this song of praise:

CHORUS:

"Our Lord God you are worthy
Of praise and glory,
For all creation was made by you.
And Jesus you are worthy,
The risen Saviour,
Of praise and honour evermore!"

Then in my vision was every creature
In earth and heaven and all of nature.
They sang the praises of God Almighty,
Who reigns forever with Christ our Lord.

CHORUS:

"Our Lord God you are worthy
Of praise and glory,
For all creation was made by you.
And Jesus you are worthy,
The risen Saviour,
Of praise and honour evermore!"

And then the scene changed, all things were new now;
New earth and heaven came into view now.
No death or crying, no pain or sorrow;
God with his people, forever praised!

CHORUS:

"Our Lord God you are worthy
Of praise and glory,
For all creation was made by you.
And Jesus you are worthy,
The risen Saviour,
Of praise and honour evermore!"
